

1. Hippocrates, the Father of Medicine belong to which century?

Fifth Century B.C.

(VICTORY OVER PAIN - A History of Anesthesia BY VICTOR ROBINSON, M.D. 1946. Page5)

2. mandragora, was used to provide pain relief of cutting in the first century A.D. How was it prepared?
drug prepared from the bark and leaves of the mandrake plant by boiling in wine and straining
(Wylie 7th Ed page1)

3. Opium is "a pain-easer and a sleep causer." Was written by whom and when?

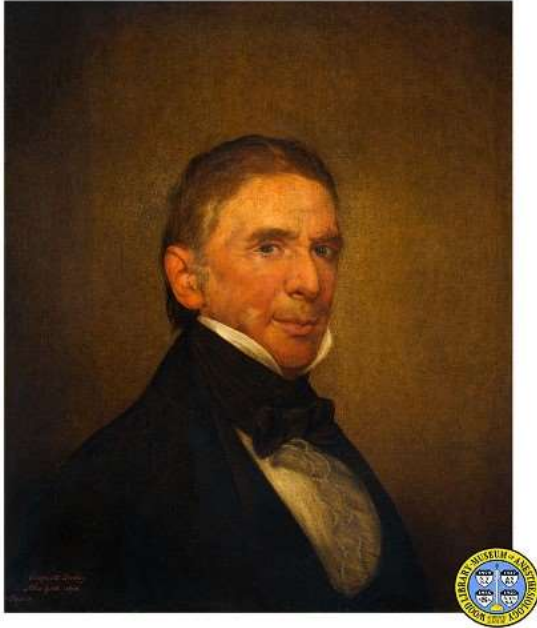

Dioscorides, the famous Greek physician of the first century A.D.,
(VICTORY OVER PAIN - A History of Anesthesia BY VICTOR ROBINSON, M.D. 1946. Page7)

4.

Horace Wells (Wylie 7th Ed page3)

5.

John Collins Warren, Surgeon for the first anaesthetic demonstration and also announced to the audience "Gentlemen, this is no humbug."
(Wylie 7th Ed page4)

6.

Apart from obstetric anaesthesia John Snow is also famous for Controlling the Cholera Epidemic.
(Wylie 7th Ed page6)

7.

How Carl Koller first appreciated the anaesthetic effect of cocaine?

Numbness of his tongue
(Wylie 7th Ed page7)

8.

Who merited the credit for introducing spinal anesthesia?

August Bier.
(Wylie 7th Ed page8)

9. Who was remembered by European writers as the "father of conduction anesthesia."

Heinrich Braun
(Wylie 7th Ed page9)

10. the first continuous epidural anesthetic was administered by

Martinez Curbelo of Havana, in 1949 used Tuohy's needle and a ureteral catheter
(Wylie 7th Ed page10)

11.

Harold Griffith Introduced Curare in anaesthetic practice in 1942
(Wylie 7th Ed page11)

12. Queen Victoria received _____ anaesthetic for the painless delivery
Chloroform
(Wylie 7th Ed page5)

13. What was the anaesthetic drug associated with the Pearl Harbour Incidence?
Thiopentone
(Miller 8th Ed page832)

14. The first Boyle's machine was developed In the following year.
1917.
(Wylie 5th Ed page1175)

Clover's Chloroform Bag
(Wylie 5th Ed page1164)

16. Clover's Chloroform Bag contained what percentage of Chloroform?
4.5% Chloroform vapour in air.
(A Synopsis of Anaesthesia by Lee 10th Ed, page11)
17. Punch Cards was introduced in anaesthetic practice by
Ralph Milton Waters
(A Synopsis of Anaesthesia by Lee 10th Ed, page19)
18. Introduction of circle method of Carbon di oxide absorption was done by Brian Sword
(A Synopsis of Anaesthesia by Lee 10th Ed, page33)
19. Stages of Ether anaesthesia was first described by
Arthur E Guedel
(Wylie 5th Ed page187)
20. The name ANAESTHESIA was suggested by
Oliver Wendell Holmes
(A Synopsis of Anaesthesia by Lee 10th Ed, page7)